

Ancient Greece - The Story of the Trojan Horse

Prehistoric

The time before historical events were recorded into writing

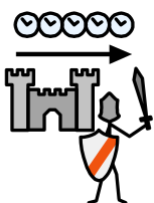

Myth

A traditional story about some being, hero or event that is not true

Legend

An old story based on some factual events often involving heroic action

Siege

An operation where enemy forces surround a place to cut off it's essential supplies.

Authenticate

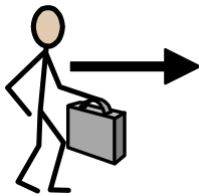

Prove or show something to be true

Ancient Greece - The Story of the Trojan Horse

Depiction

Show something or someone visually in pictures, drawings, sculptures or paintings

Envoy

A messenger or representative who is sent from one government or power to another

City state

A small nation or country with a single large settlement surrounded by it's terriritory.

civilisation

A group of people with shared languages and way of life.

Conquest

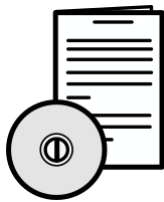

Gain control of a place by military force

Ancient Greece - The Story of the Trojan Horse

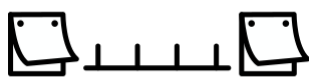

empire

A group of countries ruled by a single person, government or country

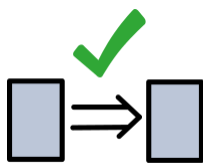

sources

Evidence that is used to gather information and reach judgements chronology

Arranging historical events in their correct time order causation

The connections between events where one thing happens as a result of another military

The armed forces of a country